OFFICE OF THE SUPREME STUDENT COUNCIL

Description: Samar College, Inc. successfully facilitated the Cultural Competitions as part of the institution's 76th Music and Sports Fest. The event was held onstage with vibrant backdrops and thematic decorations that highlighted the creativity and talent of participating students. Various performances—ranging from vocal solo, vocal duet, impersonation, folk dance and modern dance were showcased, each reflecting the artistry and dedication of the performers. Participants arrived in full costume, prepared to demonstrate their skills before an enthusiastic audience. The activity demonstrated strong collaboration among performers, student leaders, and event staff, emphasizing unity, school spirit, and cultural appreciation.

Objective:
The Cultural Competitions aim to:

1. Showcase the artistic talents of students through dance, theater, and cultural presentations.
2. Promote cultural appreciation and creativity within the school community.
3. Strengthen teamwork, discipline, and performance skills among participants.
4. Enhance school spirit and unity during the Music and Sports Fest celebration.

Activity: Performers prepared their routines ahead of the scheduled competition, with costumes and props arranged backstage. Vocal solo, vocal duet, impersonation, folk dance and modern dance each took turns on stage, presenting energetic and expressive routines. SSC Officers and event personnel worked together to coordinate entries, prepare stage transitions, and ensure the smooth flow of performances. Audience members showed strong support, cheering and applauding each presentation. The Cultural Competitions were carried out successfully, achieving their goals of promoting artistic excellence and fostering camaraderie among participants.

Description: The Supreme Student Council conducted the distribution of official t-shirts to the chorale members. The activity took place at the OSAS office, where staff and chorale members gathered to receive the newly prepared shirts. The t-shirts were neatly arranged on a table, and members were assisted by staff in verifying their names and assigned sizes. The event brought together both student leaders and personnel in a collaborative setting, showcasing unity and support for the school's performing group.

Objective:
The distribution of t-shirts aims to:

1. Promote a sense of belongingness and unity among chorale members.
2. Provide an official attire for performances, rehearsals, and institutional events.
3. Enhance organizational identity and professionalism during public appearances.
4. Recognize the commitment of students who continually represent the school through music and performance.

Activity: All t-shirts were neatly packed and arranged on the distribution table prior to the event. Chorale members were called in to receive their official shirts and SSC Officers assisted in verifying names and shirt sizes to ensure proper issuance. Members expressed appreciation as they received their shirts, strengthening motivation and morale. Later, group photos were taken featuring SSC Officers and chorale members alongside the distributed t-shirts. The distribution event was successfully conducted and achieved its goals. Chorale members are now equipped with official attire that will help enhance the group's presence in future performances and institutional events. The activity also fostered camaraderie and strengthened organizational unity.

OFFICE OF THE SUPREME STUDENT COUNCIL

Description: Samar College, Inc. successfully conducted A Night of Commitment and Celebration: Induction & Holiday Social, a significant event highlighting the formal induction of the Supreme Student Council (SSC) Officers. The ceremony was held in a well-decorated venue featuring elegant backdrops and festive holiday-themed arrangements, creating a solemn yet celebratory atmosphere.

The program formally commenced with the induction ceremony, where the newly elected SSC Officers took their oath of office. Each officer pledged to uphold the constitution of the organization and serve the student body with integrity, accountability, and dedication. The event was graced by SSC officers, representatives from various mother organizations, and partner institutions, whose presence emphasized unity and institutional support.

Following the formal rites, a Holiday Fellowship was conducted. The fellowship included engaging activities that fostered camaraderie, strengthened teamwork, and celebrated the accomplishments of the organization. The officers 'Filipiniana' and organized program flow reflected professionalism and the importance of leadership responsibility. The event was successfully carried out, marking not only the beginning of a new leadership term but also reinforcing solidarity among student leaders.

Objectives
The Induction & Holiday Social aimed to:

1. Formally induct and recognize the newly elected SSC Officers.
2. Reinforce commitment to leadership, integrity, and service to the student body.
3. Strengthen collaboration among SSC officers, mother organizations, and partner institutions.
4. Promote camaraderie, unity, and teamwork through fellowship activities.
5. Celebrate the holiday season while fostering organizational harmony.

Activity: The program began with the formal induction ceremony. The inducting officer administered the oath, and the newly elected SSC Officers raised their right hands as they solemnly pledged to fulfill their duties and responsibilities faithfully. The ceremony was conducted in a dignified manner, with stage preparations, lighting, and decorations enhancing the significance of the occasion. Officers were dressed in formal attire, symbolizing professionalism and readiness to lead. After the induction proper, the Holiday Fellowship commenced. Participants engaged in interactive and team-building activities designed to enhance communication, cooperation, and organizational bonding. The celebration allowed officers to connect beyond their official roles, fostering a stronger sense of unity and shared purpose.

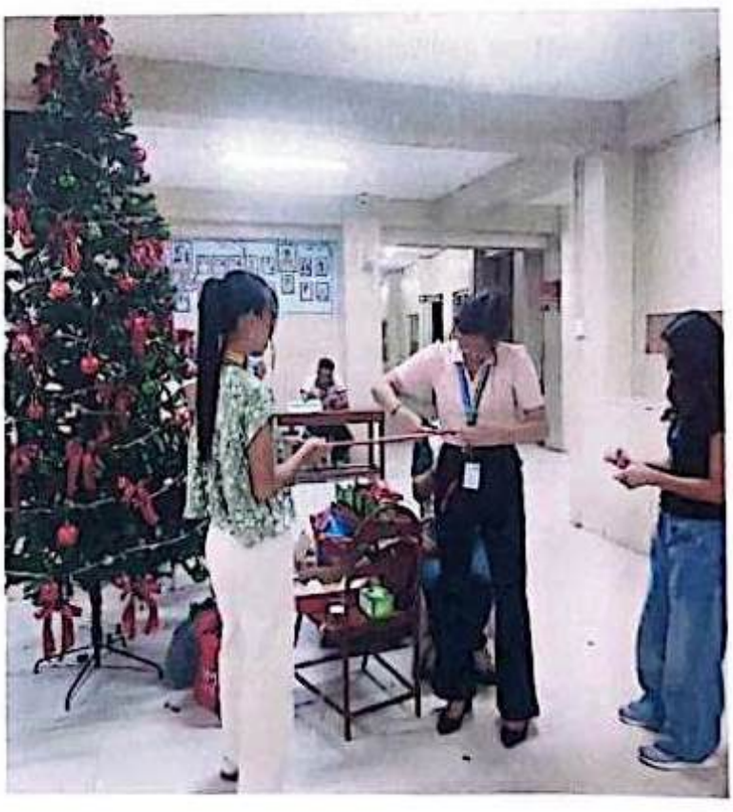
Accomplishment Report: Instillation of Christmas Decor

Organization/Department: Supreme Student Council (SSC)

Date: December 4, 2025

Venue: Samar Colleges, Inc.



Description: As part of the institution's celebration of the Christmas season, the organization actively participated in the installation of Christmas decorations throughout the Samar Colleges, Inc. campus. The activity aimed to create a festive, welcoming, and joyful environment for students, faculty, staff, and visitors while promoting the spirit of unity, creativity, and community involvement.

Volunteers worked collaboratively in decorating key areas of the campus, including building entrances, hallways, pathways, and common spaces. Various Christmas-themed ornaments, lights, banners, and other decorative materials were installed to enhance the campus atmosphere and reflect the joy and warmth of the holiday season.

The successful completion of the activity contributed to beautifying the campus and fostering a sense of school pride and togetherness among members of the academic community. Through teamwork and shared effort, the participants helped transform the campus into a vibrant and festive space that encouraged positive engagement and holiday cheer.

Objectives

- To promote the spirit of Christmas through campus-wide participation and cooperation.
- To encourage students to contribute to school activities that strengthen camaraderie and school pride.
- To provide an opportunity for student leaders and volunteers to develop teamwork, creativity, and responsibility.
- To support the institution's effort in creating a positive and engaging campus environment during the holiday season.
- To foster a sense of unity among students, faculty, staff, and other members of the Samar Colleges community.

Activities: The activity commenced with a planning and coordination meeting among the organizers and volunteers to discuss the objectives, timeline, and responsibilities for the Christmas campus beautification project. Following the meeting, participants were organized into teams and assigned specific areas and tasks to ensure the efficient implementation of the activity. Necessary materials and decorative supplies were prepared and distributed to the assigned groups. Throughout the activity, participants worked collaboratively to carry out the campus beautification initiative while coordinators monitored the progress and provided guidance as needed. Upon completion, a final inspection was conducted to assess the overall outcome of the project and ensure that all designated areas met the intended standards for the holiday celebration.

Description: Samar College, Inc. successfully represented in an Environmental Training Workshop participated in by SSC officers. The activity took place in an indoor training venue in Bodega Skolbar arranged with tables, chairs, and visual materials related to environmental awareness. The training focused on sustainability, environmental protection, leadership training on climate change and disaster risk reduction for women and girls. Participants engaged in interactive learning sessions facilitated by a resource speaker who guided them through activities, demonstrations, and discussions. The event fostered active student involvement, as seen in the group interactions and hands-on tasks conducted throughout the session. The participants and facilitators gathered together onstage, reflecting unity, engagement, and shared commitment to environmental advocacy.

Objectives:
The Environmental Training aimed to:

- Increase environmental awareness among students.
- Educate participants on sustainability, leadership training, disaster risk reduction and proper waste management.
- Encourage active participation in environmental initiatives within the school and community.
- Develop a sense of responsibility and stewardship toward natural resources.
- Strengthen teamwork and collaboration through interactive environmental activities.

Activity: The training opened with an orientation on environmental issues, sustainable practices and leadership training. The facilitator provided clear explanations on ecological protection and practical steps students can apply daily. Participants engaged in hands-on activities, reviewing printed materials and visual references distributed by the facilitator. They also gathered around a demonstration setup where environmental processes were explained, prompting active discussion and inquiries. Students collaborated throughout the session, sharing insights and strengthening their understanding of sustainability and leadership. The activity concluded with a brief reflection, where participants expressed their commitment to promoting environmental care in their school and community.

Description: The Samar Colleges, Inc. – Supreme Student Council (SSC) actively participated in the Youth for Environmental Sustainability Conference (YESCON) 2025, held on November 12–14, 2025, at the Samar Convention Center. Representing the council was Mr. Raven Kyle Dagohoy, SSC Internal Vice President, who joined youth leaders and environmental advocates from various institutions in a three-day conference focused on biodiversity conservation, climate action, sustainability, and environmental stewardship.

Throughout the conference, delegates attended informative sessions on current environmental issues affecting the Province of Samar, as well as discussions highlighting the ecological, cultural, tourism, and heritage significance of the Samar Island Natural Park (SINP). Participants also engaged in collaborative activities designed to strengthen teamwork and leadership among young environmental advocates.

A major highlight of the conference was the YESCON Challenge, where delegates were tasked to develop and propose policy-based solutions addressing environmental concerns. Mr. Dagohoy, together with Team Sohoton, presented their action proposal entitled "Project Haribon: Passive Acoustic Monitoring for Philippine Eagles in Samar Island Natural Park (SINP)." The proposal emphasized the use of innovative monitoring approaches to support wildlife conservation and biodiversity protection within the region.

Following the evaluation of all entries, Team Sohoton was awarded Third Place in the YESCON Challenge, recognizing the group's outstanding contribution and commitment to environmental sustainability. This achievement reflects the dedication of the Supreme Student Council in promoting youth engagement, leadership development, and advocacy for environmental protection.

The participation and recognition received during YESCON 2025 further strengthened the council's commitment to supporting initiatives that foster sustainability, responsible citizenship, and positive community impact.

Objective:

- To enhance the awareness of student leaders on biodiversity conservation, climate action, and environmental sustainability.
- To empower youth advocates to actively participate in environmental protection initiatives and policy development.
- To develop leadership, collaboration, and problem-solving skills through environmental-focused activities and discussions.
- To encourage the formulation of innovative and sustainable solutions to environmental issues affecting Samar and the Philippines.

Activities:

Participation in the Youth for Environmental Sustainability Conference (YESCON) 2025, a three-day environmental leadership and advocacy conference that provided student leaders with opportunities to learn about biodiversity conservation, climate action, sustainability, and environmental policy-making through lectures, workshops, group activities, and the YESCON Challenge.

Activity: Restoration of Christmas Decorations

Date: January 15, 2026

Venue: Samar Colleges, Inc. Campus

Description: The Supreme Student Council conducted the restoration of Christmas decorations as part of its post-holiday campus maintenance efforts. The activity involved the systematic removal, collection, and storage of Christmas decorations and display materials that were previously installed in various areas of the campus. Through the active participation of SSC officers and volunteers, the activity was carried out efficiently, ensuring that reusable materials were properly preserved and campus facilities were restored to their regular condition. The initiative promoted teamwork, responsibility, and stewardship while contributing to the cleanliness and organization of the school environment.

Objectives:

- To properly dismantle and collect Christmas decorations installed within the campus.
- To ensure the safekeeping and proper storage of reusable Christmas materials for future use.
- To maintain the cleanliness and orderliness of the campus after the holiday season.
- To promote teamwork, responsibility, and cooperation among student leaders and volunteers.
- To assist in the restoration of regular campus operations and facilities following the Christmas celebration.

Activity: The restoration of Christmas decorations was conducted to remove holiday-themed displays and ornaments that had been installed throughout the campus during the Christmas season. Student leaders and volunteers worked collaboratively in dismantling decorations, sorting reusable materials, and ensuring that all items were properly packed and stored. The activity also involved cleaning designated areas and restoring campus spaces to their regular arrangement. Through coordinated efforts, the restoration was completed efficiently, contributing to a clean, organized, and conducive learning environment for the academic community.

The activity became a meaningful avenue for promoting environmental consciousness, discipline, and active participation among students. It also strengthened collaboration among departments and student organizations in advocating for sustainability and responsible waste management practices within the institution.

The celebration concluded successfully with words of appreciation from the organizers, recognizing the efforts and participation of students, faculty members, judges, and partner organizations who contributed to the success of the Zero Waste Management Month Celebration 2026.

Objectives

The Zero Waste Management Month Celebration aimed to:

- Promote awareness and understanding of proper waste management and environmental sustainability among students;
- Encourage students to participate actively in environmental advocacy through academic and creative activities;
- Develop critical thinking, creativity, and social responsibility among learners;
- Strengthen students' appreciation of the importance of environmental protection and sustainable practices;
- Foster unity and collaboration among departments and student organizations in promoting a cleaner and greener community; and
- Inspire students to become responsible individuals who contribute to environmental preservation and sustainability efforts.

Activities: The Supreme Student Council conducted several academic and advocacy-based activities in line with the celebration of Zero Waste Management Month 2026. The activities formally opened with announcements and campaign promotions encouraging students to participate and support environmental awareness initiatives within the institution.

Among the major activities conducted were the Essay Writing Contest, Quiz Bee, and Slogan-Making Contest held at the Graduate Studies Library. These competitions allowed students from different departments to showcase their knowledge, creativity, and awareness regarding environmental sustainability and proper waste management.

The Essay Writing Contest encouraged participants to express their ideas and perspectives on environmental responsibility and sustainability through written compositions. The Quiz Bee tested students' knowledge about environmental issues, Republic Act 9003, and waste management practices. Meanwhile, the Slogan-Making Contest allowed students to creatively convey messages promoting environmental awareness and responsible waste disposal. The competitions were facilitated by the Supreme Student Council in coordination with participating departments, faculty members, and event facilitators. Judges carefully evaluated the entries and performances of participants based on established criteria.

The event also promoted camaraderie, participation, and environmental responsibility among students while emphasizing the importance of small actions in creating a cleaner and more sustainable future. The activity concluded with the announcement of winners, awarding of recognitions, and expressions of gratitude to everyone who contributed to the success of the celebration.

Accomplishment Report: Samar Colleges, Inc. – 77th Founding Anniversary Celebration 2026

Department/Organization: Supreme Student Council (SSC)

Theme: "Celebrating 77 Years of Excellence, Culture, Leadership, and Talent"

Date: February 19–25, 2026

Venue: Samar College Quadrangle and Samar Colleges, Inc. Grounds

Description: Samar Colleges, Inc. successfully celebrated its 77th Founding Anniversary through a week-long series of activities that showcased the institution's commitment to excellence, culture, leadership, unity, and student empowerment. The celebration gathered administrators, faculty members, students, alumni, performers, and guests in commemorating the rich history and continued success of the institution.

The Supreme Student Council (SSC) played a vital role in the planning, organization, coordination, and facilitation of the entire celebration. SSC officers worked closely with the Office of Student Affairs and Services, faculty advisers, and various departments to ensure the smooth flow and successful implementation of all activities. Through effective teamwork, leadership, and commitment, the SSC contributed significantly in making the events organized, engaging, and memorable for the entire Samar Colleges community.

One of the highlights of the celebration was the Mr. & Ms. SC Kaanyag 2026 Talent Competition, which showcased the intelligence, confidence, beauty, and talents of the candidates representing different departments. The Talent Competition held on February 19, 2026, at the Samar College Quadrangle allowed candidates to demonstrate their unique abilities and creativity, making the event lively and memorable for the audience.

The celebration continued with the Mr. & Ms. SC Kaanyag 2026 Grand Coronation Night on February 20, 2026, which became a night of elegance, excellence, and unforgettable moments. The candidates captivated the audience through their performances, confidence, and meaningful advocacies, proving that beauty with purpose remains an important representation of leadership and character.

Another major highlight of the anniversary celebration was the conduct of the Samar College Cultural Show held on February 24 and 25, 2026 at the Samar College Quadrangle. The cultural events featured outstanding performances from invited guest performers and talented students from various departments including Elementary, Junior High School, Senior High School, CITAS, SCTI, CBM, COED, and COCJE. The performances showcased Filipino culture, music, dance, and artistic expression, promoting unity and appreciation for the talents within the Samar Colleges community.

Special performances were also presented by guest performers and cultural groups including:

- Ms. Vinna Ru Ruth
- EAZE Dancers
- SSU Rondalla Instruments
- Ms. Joannie Leanda

- SSU Piktaw Cultural Ensemble
- D' Chimpz
- Balinsasayaw Vibes
- Samar College Chorale
- Samar College Pride (PRISAA Cultural Representatives)
- Samar College Rayhak Dance Troupe
- Ms. Ivy Baens
- Ms. Aljean Grace Bacaycay and Mr. Jeiross Julaton
- Ms. Clarice Culminas

In addition to facilitating the major anniversary events, the Supreme Student Council also organized the SSnaCks Booth, located at the Lobby of the New Building, beginning February 24, 2026. Through the promotional campaign "Crave it. Grab it. Love it.", SSC officers offered affordable and enjoyable snacks for students, guests, and participants during the celebration. The booth not only provided refreshments and convenience to attendees but also contributed to the lively atmosphere and student engagement throughout the event.

The celebration became a meaningful platform for students to express their creativity, talents, leadership, and pride as Samar Collegians while strengthening camaraderie and school spirit among the different departments and organizations. The activities concluded successfully with photo opportunities, fellowship moments, and expressions of gratitude to all individuals and organizations who contributed to the success of the 77th Founding Anniversary celebration.

Objectives

The 77th Founding Anniversary Celebration aimed to:

- Celebrate the 77 years of excellence, achievements, and legacy of Samar Colleges, Inc.

Accomplishment Report: Samar Colleges, Inc. – Women's Month Symposium and Culminating Activity 2026

Organization/Department: Office of Student Affairs and Services in partnership with the Supreme Student Council

Theme: "WE for Gender Equality and Inclusive Society"

Date: March 21, 2026

Venue: Cocina De Cabral, Catbalogan City

Description: Samar Colleges, Inc., through the Office of Student Affairs and Services in partnership with the Supreme Student Council, successfully conducted the Women's Month Symposium and Culminating Activity on March 21, 2026, at Cocina De Cabral, Catbalogan City. The event gathered students, faculty members, partner organizations, and invited guests in celebration of Women's Month with the theme, "WE for Gender Equality and Inclusive Society."

The activity aimed to promote gender equality, inclusivity, women empowerment, and leadership through meaningful discussions and inspiring sessions from distinguished guest speakers. The symposium served as a platform for participants to gain knowledge, appreciation, and awareness of the importance of empowering women and creating inclusive spaces within society and educational institutions.

The program formally opened with registration, prayer, singing of the National Anthem, and Opening Remarks delivered by Joshua Tayong, Supreme Student Council President. The symposium featured four insightful sessions from invited speakers who shared their expertise and experiences on leadership, empowerment, inclusivity, and action-oriented service.

The first session was delivered by Ms. Aura Anne Rose B. Tan with the topic "The Power of Inclusive Leadership: Breaking Stereotypes." She emphasized the importance of creating inclusive spaces where everyone, regardless of gender or background, has equal opportunities to lead and succeed. She highlighted that true leadership is rooted in empathy, capability, and vision, challenging stereotypes that limit women's potential. Her inspiring message encouraged participants to become advocates of inclusivity and equality.

The second session was presented by Dr. Marilyn D. Cardoso through her topic "Filipinas at the Helm: Leading with Courage and Compassion." She discussed the significant role of Filipina leaders in shaping communities through resilience, courage, empathy, and service. Dr. Cardoso emphasized that leadership is not only about authority but also about leading with heart and purpose. Her message inspired participants to embrace leadership roles and make meaningful contributions to society.

The symposium continued with an empowering discussion from Ms. Tennessee Marie J. Abaigar entitled "Empowered Leadership: Embracing the Babaylan Spirit." She highlighted the strength and wisdom of women leaders rooted in culture, resilience, identity, and purpose. Her session encouraged participants to embrace their individuality, cultural identity, and inner strength in becoming empowered leaders within their communities and chosen fields.

The final session was delivered by Mr. Mark Bons M. Fernandez through the topic "The Doer's Mindset: Leadership in Action." He emphasized the importance of initiative, accountability, and turning ideas into concrete actions. His discussion inspired participants to become proactive leaders who lead not only through words but also through meaningful actions and commitment to positive change.

The symposium concluded with the awarding of certificates to participants, guest speakers, and partner organizations in recognition of their valuable support and contributions to the success of the event. Partner organizations recognized during the activity included Waray-Waray Youth Advocates, Lantaw Pitad Inc., and JCI Catbalogan Balud. The ceremony highlighted the importance of collaboration among organizations and community partners in promoting women empowerment, inclusivity, and social responsibility.

The event ended with closing remarks delivered by Ms. Charnym Toleran, SSC Adviser, followed by a photo opportunity and fellowship activity among participants, organizers, and guests. The Women's Month Symposium and Culminating Activity served as a meaningful celebration that inspired participants to continue advocating for equality, inclusivity, leadership, and empowerment within the institution and the wider community.

Objective

The Women's Month Symposium and Culminating Activity aimed to:

- Promote awareness and understanding of gender equality and inclusivity;
- Empower women and encourage active participation in leadership and community development;
- Inspire students to become advocates of equality, inclusivity, and social responsibility;
- Provide meaningful discussions on leadership, empowerment, and breaking stereotypes;
- Strengthen collaboration among student organizations, partner institutions, and community organizations;
- Celebrate the contributions and achievements of women in society and leadership.

Activities: The Women's Month Symposium and Culminating Activity featured several meaningful activities designed to educate, inspire, and empower participants. The program formally opened with registration, prayer, singing of the National Anthem, and opening remarks from school representatives.

The symposium proper included four keynote sessions delivered by invited speakers focusing on inclusive leadership, women empowerment, courage and compassion in leadership, cultural identity, and leadership in action. Participants actively engaged in the discussions and reflected on the importance of equality, empowerment, and proactive leadership. Recognition and awarding ceremonies were conducted to honor guest speakers, partner organizations, and participants for their support and active involvement in the event. Certificates of appreciation and participation were distributed during the culminating activities.

Photo opportunity, fellowship moments, and networking activities were also conducted to strengthen camaraderie and collaboration among participants, organizations, and stakeholders. The activity concluded with closing remarks and messages encouraging everyone to continue advocating for gender equality, empowerment, and inclusive leadership.

Activity: Antiao River Clean-up Drive

Date: March-April 2026

Venue: Antiao River

Description: The Supreme Student Council (SSC) participated in the Antiao River Clean-up Drive as part of its commitment to environmental stewardship and community involvement. The activity aimed to support ongoing efforts to preserve the cleanliness and ecological condition of the Antiao River while promoting environmental awareness among students and local residents. Through its participation, the SSC demonstrated its support for initiatives that contribute to the protection and sustainability of natural resources.

The activity also provided an opportunity for SSC officers to engage with community members, volunteers, and partner organizations in a meaningful environmental undertaking. By taking part in the clean-up drive, the Council reinforced the values of volunteerism, civic responsibility, and collective action. The experience encouraged participants to become advocates for environmental conservation and highlighted the importance of collaboration in addressing environmental concerns within the community.

Objectives:

- To promote environmental awareness and responsibility among students and community members.
- To contribute to the preservation and cleanliness of the Antiao River and its surrounding areas.
- To encourage volunteerism and active participation in environmental conservation initiatives.
- To strengthen collaboration between the Supreme Student Council and community stakeholders in addressing environmental concerns.
- To instill the values of stewardship, sustainability, and civic responsibility among participants.

Activity: The clean-up drive brought together SSC officers, student volunteers, and partner organizations in a coordinated effort to remove waste and debris from designated areas along the Antiao River. Participants were oriented on proper waste collection and segregation procedures before being assigned to specific sections of the riverbank. Throughout the activity, collected waste materials were sorted and disposed of appropriately to minimize environmental impact. The initiative also served as an opportunity to raise awareness about pollution prevention and the importance of protecting local waterways. The activity concluded with a brief evaluation and reflection session, highlighting the significance of continued environmental stewardship and community participation.

Accomplishment Report: Gender-Inclusive Tourism Awareness Training Forum
Training on Visual Arts
Organization: Supreme Student Council (SSC)
Theme: National Arts Month 2026 Celebration
Duration: February 23, 2026

Description: In support of the celebration of National Arts Month 2026, representatives from the Samar Colleges, Inc. – Supreme Student Council (SSC) and the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences (CLAS) participated in the Gender-Inclusive Tourism Awareness Training Forum Training on Visual Arts held on February 23, 2026, at Bodega, Catbalogan City. The activity brought together students, educators, artists, and cultural advocates from various schools to promote appreciation of visual arts and its role in fostering cultural awareness, inclusivity, and tourism development.

Representing Samar Colleges, Inc. were SSC Vice President for Internal Affairs Raven Kyle Dagohoy, SSC Secretary Hazel Chanthal Allen, and CLAS President Shiela Mae Albos, accompanied by CLAS faculty members Mrs. Carlota S. Uy and Mrs. Ronna Marie Briones-Gadin. The delegates actively participated in discussions, workshops, and interactive learning sessions facilitated by experienced practitioners and resource speakers in the field of visual arts.

The forum provided participants with valuable insights into different forms of visual arts, artistic expression, cultural preservation, and the significance of gender-inclusive approaches in tourism and community development. Through meaningful discussions and collaborative activities, participants gained a deeper understanding of the relationship between arts, culture, inclusivity, and sustainable tourism.

Organized by the City Government of Catbalogan through the Catbalogan City Tourism, Culture, Arts and Information Office, with the support of the Local Culture and the Arts Council of Catbalogan City, the event served as an avenue for empowering young leaders and artists to become advocates of culture, creativity, and social inclusion.

Objectives

• To promote awareness and appreciation of visual arts among student leaders and participants.

• To enhance understanding of the role of arts and culture in tourism development and community engagement.

• To encourage gender-inclusive perspectives in cultural and tourism-related initiatives.

• To develop creativity, critical thinking, and artistic expression through interactive workshops and discussions.

• To strengthen student participation in cultural, artistic, and community-based programs.

Activities: Participation in the Gender-Inclusive Tourism Awareness Training (GITAT) Forum Training on Visual Arts, which included lectures, discussions, workshops, and interactive activities facilitated by visual arts practitioners and cultural advocates. Participants engaged in learning sessions that explored various forms of visual arts, cultural preservation, artistic expression, gender inclusivity, and the integration of arts in tourism promotion and community development. The activity also provided opportunities for networking, collaboration, and the exchange of ideas among students, educators, artists, and cultural stakeholders from different institutions and communities.

The delegates engaged in interactive workshops that explored various forms of visual arts, artistic techniques, and creative expression while emphasizing inclusivity and diversity in the arts. They also participated in group discussions and sharing sessions that examined the role of gender-inclusive practices in cultural and tourism development.

Activity: 2nd Team Building Activities

Date: June 6, 2026

Venue: Buri Baras Beach

Description: The Supreme Student Council (SSC) conducted its 2nd Team Building Activities to promote stronger relationships, unity, and cooperation among its officers and members. The activity provided an opportunity for participants to engage in meaningful interactions and strengthen their sense of belonging within the organization. Through shared experiences and collaborative engagement, members were encouraged to develop trust, teamwork, and mutual understanding essential to effective student leadership.

Furthermore, the activity served as a venue for personal and organizational growth by fostering leadership, communication, and problem-solving skills. It allowed participants to reflect on their roles and responsibilities as student leaders while reinforcing their commitment to the Council's mission and objectives. The experience contributed to building a more cohesive and motivated team capable of working together to better serve the student body and the institution.

Objectives:

- To strengthen camaraderie and unity among SSC officers and members.
- To enhance teamwork, communication, and collaboration through interactive activities.
- To develop leadership, problem-solving, and decision-making skills among participants.
- To foster trust, cooperation, and mutual respect within the organization.
- To provide an opportunity for reflection, recreation, and organizational bonding.

Activity: The program began with an orientation and opening session, followed by a series of team-building games, group challenges, and recreational activities. Participants were divided into teams and engaged in exercises that required cooperation, communication, strategic thinking, and problem-solving. Throughout the activity, members were encouraged to work together to accomplish tasks and overcome challenges while promoting sportsmanship and teamwork. The event concluded with a reflection and sharing session, where participants discussed their experiences, lessons learned, and ways to further strengthen the organization.

Description: Selected officers of the Supreme Student Council of Samar Colleges, Inc. participated in the 3rd Regional Student, Advisers, and Dean of SAS Leadership Summit and Conference organized by the Philippine Association of Practitioners of Student Affairs and Services (PAPSAS). The event gathered student leaders, advisers, and student affairs practitioners from various colleges and universities across the region to strengthen leadership competencies and promote effective student governance.

The summit officially opened on March 5, 2026, with welcome remarks from Mr. Lowe S. Taña, President and Dean of Student Affairs of Saint Paul School of Professional Studies. A message of support was delivered by Ms. Kim Operario, SAS Focal Person of CHED Region VIII. The keynote address was presented by Dr. Maximo C. Aljibe, Regional Director of CHED Region VIII, who emphasized the importance of leadership, collaboration, and responsible student participation in higher education institutions.

The event also featured Hon. Jude A. Acidre, Representative of the Tingog Partylist, as one of the guest speakers. The first session was facilitated by Dr. Marcon R. Espino, who discussed the topic "Organizational Branding: Identity in Action," highlighting the significance of establishing a strong identity and purpose for student organizations.

On March 6, 2026, the summit continued with several insightful sessions aimed at enhancing the leadership skills of student leaders. The second session, "Admin Relations: Stepping Forward," was delivered by Dr. Ervina Espina, which focused on strengthening the relationship between student leaders and school administrators. This was followed by the third session, "Student Rights and Activism: Know the Line," presented by Atty. Rosalyn Aquino, who discussed the importance of understanding student rights while practicing responsible and respectful activism.

The fourth session was facilitated by Prof. Oliver Diaz, who presented "Smart Tools: Lead Efficiently," introducing practical digital tools and strategies that student leaders can utilize to improve productivity, organization, and efficiency in managing student initiatives and programs.

Throughout the summit, participants actively engaged in discussions, collaborative activities, and networking opportunities with fellow student leaders from different institutions. The event concluded with a Fellowship and Awards Night, where outstanding student leaders were recognized for their commitment and contributions to student leadership and service.

The participation of the SSC representatives from Samar Colleges, Inc. provided valuable learning experiences and insights that can be applied in strengthening leadership, collaboration, and student governance within the institution.

Objective:
The primary objective of the participation in the leadership summit was to strengthen the leadership competencies of the selected Supreme Student Council officers. Specifically, it aimed to:

- Enhance the leadership knowledge and skills of SSC officers through participation in discussions, workshops, and leadership sessions.
- Provide an opportunity for student leaders to interact and build networks with other student councils from different institutions.

- Promote awareness on important topics such as student rights, responsible activism, and effective collaboration with school administration.
- Encourage SSC officers to apply the knowledge and experiences gained from the summit in strengthening student leadership and governance within Samar Colleges, Inc.

Activities: The SSC representatives actively participated in a series of leadership sessions and discussions during the summit. The second day of the event featured several informative talks that focused on strengthening student governance and leadership practices.

One of the sessions emphasized the importance of establishing a positive and cooperative relationship between student leaders and school administrators. Another session focused on understanding the rights and responsibilities of students while promoting responsible and respectful forms of activism within educational institutions. Participants were also introduced to various digital tools and innovative strategies that can assist student leaders in managing their responsibilities more efficiently.

In addition to the learning sessions, the event also included fellowship activities and recognition programs for outstanding student leaders. These activities allowed participants to interact with fellow delegates, exchange ideas, and celebrate leadership achievements within the student community.

Accomplishment Report: Samar Colleges, Inc., Through the Wires – Mastering Canva Essentials Workshop
Organization/Department: Supreme Student Council (SSC) and Samar Colleges, Inc. Student Representatives
Theme: Promoting Digital Literacy and Creativity in Celebration of National ICT Month 2026
Date: June 23, 2026
Venue: DICT Samar Provincial Office, Catbalogan City, Samar

Description: In celebration of National ICT Month 2026, selected college students from Samar Colleges, Inc. participated in the "Through the Wires: Mastering Canva Essentials Workshop" held on June 23, 2026, at the DICT Samar Provincial Office, Catbalogan City, Samar. The activity was organized by the Province of Samar through the Samar Provincial Library in partnership with the Department of Information and Communications Technology (DICT) and the Public Employment Service Office (PESO).

The workshop aimed to equip students with essential digital design skills and enhance their creativity through hands-on learning experiences using Canva, a widely used graphic design platform. A total of fifty-eight (58) students from various academic departments of Samar Colleges, Inc. participated in the second leg of the workshop, divided into two batches to ensure effective learning and engagement.

The program formally commenced with opening preliminaries hosted by Mr. Benedicto Reyes, followed by the Welcome Remarks delivered by Engr. Edberto Versoza, DICT Samar Provincial Officer. Participants were then immersed in an interactive lecture and practical training facilitated by Mr. Armel Quebada, CFL II and Activity In-Charge, who introduced the essential tools, features, and applications of Canva in graphic design and visual communication.

Throughout the workshop, students learned the fundamentals of graphic design, content creation, branding, and effective visual communication. They were also given the opportunity to apply their newly acquired knowledge by creating travel posters that showcased the beauty, culture, and tourist attractions of Catbalogan City. This hands-on activity allowed participants to demonstrate their creativity, collaboration, and understanding of design principles.

The successful conduct of the workshop highlighted the strong partnership among the Samar Provincial Library, DICT, and PESO in promoting digital literacy and empowering the youth through technology-based initiatives. The organizers also expressed their gratitude to Samar Colleges, Inc., through the support and approval of Mr. Rhett Caesar L. Piczon, College President, and to the Provincial Government of Samar under the leadership of Governor Ann Tan and Ma'am Melita N. Mallari, SAO/OIC-PGADH (Librarian V), for their unwavering support in making the activity possible.

The activity concluded successfully with participants gaining valuable digital competencies that can support their academic, organizational, and future professional endeavors while fostering creativity, innovation, and responsible use of technology.

Objectives
The "Through the Wires: Mastering Canva Essentials Workshop" aimed to:

- Enhance students' knowledge and skills in using Canva as a digital design platform;
- Develop participants' creativity and competencies in graphic design and visual communication;
- Provide students with practical experience in creating digital content and branding materials;
- Promote digital literacy and responsible use of technology among the youth;
- Encourage innovation and creativity that can support academic and organizational activities; and
- Empower students with relevant digital skills that may contribute to their future professional development.

Activities: Selected college students from various departments of Samar Colleges, Inc. participated in the "Through the Wires: Mastering Canva Essentials Workshop" held at the DICT Samar Provincial Office on June 23, 2026. The activity was conducted as part of the celebration of National ICT Month and aimed to promote digital literacy and creativity among college students.

The program commenced with opening preliminaries, followed by welcome messages from the organizers and partner agencies. Participants attended an engaging lecture and hands-on training session on Canva, where they learned the fundamentals of graphic design, content creation, branding, and visual communication. The workshop provided students with practical experiences through interactive activities and design exercises. One of the highlights of the training was the creation of travel posters featuring the beauty and attractions of Catbalogan City, allowing participants to apply the concepts and techniques they had learned during the session.

Organization: Samar Colleges, Inc. – Supreme Student Council (SC-SSC)

Duration: October 23–25, 2026

Venue: Samar State University – Paranas Campus, Paranas, Samar

Description: The Samar Colleges, Inc. – Supreme Student Council (SC-SSC) participated in the Youth for Environmental Sustainability Conference (YESCON) 2026, held on October 23–25, 2026, at Samar State University – Paranas Campus in Paranas, Samar. The three-day conference brought together youth delegates from different youth zones to promote environmental awareness, sustainability, and collective action in protecting the environment.

Representing the SC-SSC were Mr. Raven Kyle Dagohoy, Supreme Student Council President, and Mr. Joshua Tayong, College of Education Representative. Together with fellow delegates, they participated in environmental learning activities and explored several ecological sites, including the SINP Eco-Trail, Ulot River Jump-Off Point, Arboretum ni Papa Donoy, and BOSIS Ecological Demonstration Farm.

These activities provided the delegates with opportunities to appreciate Samar's rich natural resources and ecological heritage while gaining a deeper understanding of the importance of environmental conservation and responsible stewardship. The conference emphasized the call to CARE for SINP, LIVE with SINP, and SURVIVE with SINP, highlighting the shared responsibility of the youth in protecting the Samar Island Natural Park (SINP) and preserving the environment for future generations.

The participation of the SC-SSC representatives strengthened the council's commitment to environmental advocacy, youth leadership, and sustainable community development. The knowledge and experiences gained from YESCON 2026 serve as an inspiration for promoting environmental awareness and encouraging responsible environmental practices within the Samar Colleges, Inc. community.

Objectives:

- To enhance the environmental awareness of student leaders regarding biodiversity conservation, sustainability, and environmental protection.
- To promote appreciation of Samar's natural resources and ecological heritage, particularly the Samar Island Natural Park (SINP).
- To encourage youth participation in environmental advocacy and conservation initiatives.
- To develop leadership, collaboration, and responsible environmental stewardship among student leaders.
- To strengthen the SC-SSC's commitment to promoting sustainability and environmental responsibility within the school community.

Activities:

Participation in the three-day Youth for Environmental Sustainability Conference (YESCON) 2026, which included environmental learning activities, ecological site visits, and exposure to conservation initiatives. The delegates visited the SINP Eco-Trail, Ulot River Jump-Off Point, Arboretum ni Papa Donoy, and BOSIS Ecological Demonstration Farm to deepen their understanding of environmental conservation, sustainability, and the importance of protecting Samar's natural resources.
